THE recent attempt to assassinate the Czar ALEXANDER-II. seems to have again set the bad fashion among fanatics and disloyal subjects of seeking the lives of royal personages in Europe. It is not so very long since we took occasion to comment-on-the fact that an Saturday last. epidemic of assassination had broken out in Europe, attempts having been made on the February, 1878. lives of the Emperors of Germany and Russia and the Kings of Italy and Spain. Very recently an attempt was made on the life of the Viceroy of India, and now we learn that some blood thirsty individual has tried to assassinate King Alfonso and his voung bride in the streets of Madrid. Not infrequently the craze some unfortunate being whose mind has become unhinged leads him to seek a momentary notoriety by assailing the life of the monarch. We believe that all the attempts made on the life our Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria have been undertaken by poor demented creatures who were found to be not responsible for their actions. On Friday afternoon last a collision occurred in the harbour, near the steamer Ichang, between the steam ferry launch Nuon Loong and a steam launch belonging to the Victor Emunuel. The former struck the latter amidships, and had it not been for her possessing water tight compartments the latter would probably have sunk. A European on board was thrown into the water and was picked up by a passing police boat. The stem of the Ngan Loong was knocked away.
